

HAZARDOUS SUBSTANCES

Choose the correct answer:

1. "Hazard Communication Standard"? What is another name for the
 - a. "Don't Tread on Me".
 - b. "Proposition 65".
 - c. "Worker Right to Know"
 - d. "Look Before You Leap"

2. In California, Proposition 65, also known as the "Clean Water Act" adds to the Hazard Communications Standards. Proposition 65 says that the employer must notify all employees, patients and visitors of the use of:
 - a. Carcinogens
 - b. Materials which cause birth defects
 - c. Materials which may have reproductive harm
 - d. All of the Above

3. The Hazard Communication Program is required by the Federal Government and must contain?
 - a. Warning labels on containers
 - b. Employee training
 - c. Materials Safety Data Sheets (MSDS)
 - d. All of the above

4. What information do Material Safety Data Sheets (MSDS) provide?
 - a. The cafeteria's chicken recipe.
 - b. How to drive in the rain, sleet, or snow.
 - c. Mandated information for manufactured chemicals or hazardous materials
 - d. Answers to the CALS quiz.

5. Chemical or product labels and their matching MSDS's are required to have following type(s) of information on them.
 - a. The NAME of the product
 - b. Any health and physical hazard(s)
 - c. Name and address of the Manufacturer or importer.
 - d. All of the above

End